“Due to the current worldwide landscape, we held our dealer meeting virtually and had a spectacular turnout,” said Scout Director of Sales & Marketing Alan Lang. “Our outstanding dealer network and their representatives work tirelessly to represent our Scout brand, and it’s an honor to award them for their successful efforts throughout the year. We’re proud to have them as part of our Scout family.”

During the virtual dealer meeting, Scout provided a sneak peek at new models soon to debut: 195 Sport Dorado (out now), 277 Dorado (set to debut at the Ft. Lauderdale Int’l Boat Show), 425 LXF (set to debut at the Ft. Lauderdale Int’l Boat Show) & 350 LXZ (set for Spring 2021 debut).

Scout builds luxury sportfishing center console, dual console and inshore/bay boat models ranging from 17’ to 53’. Since its founding over three decades ago, the company’s goal has been to manufacture the best-built boats in its distinctive sportfishing niches. Each Scout hull is a true original, as the in-house research and design team works closely with engineering to take concepts from blueprint to production more efficiently, growing the company’s world-class reputation for quality, strength, durability and value.
